

California's Common Core State Standards for Literacy in the Disciplines

MODULE DESCRIPTIONS

Literacy in the Disciplines: An Introduction (Grades 4-12)

- Review the CCSS for Literacy in HSSSTS
- Define disciplinary literacy
- Explore the importance of disciplinary literacy
- Learn and plan an instructional strategy to support literacy in all disciplines
- Plan to implement the strategy

Literacy in History/Social Studies (Grades 4-12)

Part 1:

- Explore the role of the CCSS reading standards in history/social studies instruction
- Make connections between the CCSS and historical thinking skills
- Understand the importance of sourcing as a way to evaluate evidence in history/social studies texts
- Practice sourcing and evaluating documents to support a claim

Part 2:

- Continue to explore the role of the CCSS reading standards in history/social studies instruction
- Make connections between the CCSS and historical thinking skills
- Understand the importance of contextualizing and corroborating as a way to evaluate evidence in history/social studies texts
- Practice sourcing, contextualizing, and corroborating documents to support a claim

Part 3:

- Explore the role of the CCSS writing standards in history/social studies instruction
- Make connections between the CCSS and historical thinking skills
- Understand the importance of historical argumentation
- Practice sourcing, contextualization, and corroboration can be used to support the CCSS

Literacy in Science and Technical Subjects (Grades 4-12)

Part 1:

- Explore the role of the CCSS reading standards in science and technical subjects instructions
- Examine four planning and lesson considerations to connect the learner to the content area text

Part 2:

- Explore the role of the CCSS writing standards in science and technical subjects instructions
- Examine how interactive student notebooks can support the demands of the CCSS writing standards

For more information, contact Monica Abeyta at (916) 228-2559 or at k12curriculum@scoe.net

Sacramento
Office of Education County

www.scoecatalog.net